In Memoriam Ronald S Barclay on the day of his funeral. "Ron" was an active member of the Hull Handbells Project until the Covid Pandemic.

Out and about

The loss of Timothy Billings and the onset of winter reduced our numbers in early February. We did meet to ring Kent TB Royal but the quarter was unsuccessful. Persistence will pay.

The Stedman Project is currently being pursued online and the trio have taken to gaining some light relief by ringing some Treble Bob Minor. A good quarter of Oxford Treble Bob was rung before entering into a battle with Morning Star Treble Bob.

The Friday (WoW) group continues to meet and rings Major with the addition of Chris Church. Chris was unavailable on 13th so the group paid respects to Ronald Barclay with a quarter peal, and then went on to explore Sandal Treble Bob and Burton Treble Bob.

Burton - we didn't even know the name of the method until after a successful course had been rung; this is an indicator of how much method ringing progress has been made.

An online session (Discord / Ringing Room) saw (heard) Morning Star and London Scholar's Pleasure Treble Bob added to the list of methods.
